Patient Instructions

Welcome to Ovation Fertility

Your Physician has referred you to the Ovation Fertility Laboratory for testing. Please call our office to schedule an appointment for this test (615-321-4740). For any test on semen (semen analysis, semen culture, or sperm cryopreservation), abstinence from ejaculation for a period between 2 to 5 days before your appointment date is required for accurate test results.

When you arrive for your appointment, you will be given some forms to fill out and will be shown to a private collection room. The lab will give you instructions. After collection, you will check out at the front desk. Payment is required at the time of service.

We will Fax your test results to the referring physician’s office within 7 working days. You will be referred back to his/her office for review of the Andrology test results. If you wish to consult with one of Nashville Fertility Center’s physicians concerning your laboratory results, after obtaining the results from your physician, please contact NFC for an appointment (615-321-4740).
